

Sean Bell Executioners . . .

SET FREE TO KILL AGAIN!!!

The three kkkops that murdered Sean Bell and injured in his friends were set free by the racist U.S. justice system.

Now, as always, liberal misleaders and reformers will try to contain the working class's righteous anger, channeling it instead into their reform efforts like "community policing" and "police oversight" and their election campaigns. But to fight police murders, we can't fall into this trap!

The cops can never become less racist or lethal to the working class than they have always been. They provide the domestic front line of the profit system's government, which communists call the state apparatus. They serve the big bosses and embody the bosses' class dictatorship over us.

The bosses love to pretend that the cops' role is to "prevent crime." But it's just the opposite. The cops exist to help the rulers commit the crimes against us that their maximum profits require. Bloomberg, for example, has carried out hundreds of millions of dollars worth of budget cuts, slashing health, education, day care, the parks, etc., to the bare bones. These cuts have undoubtedly led to more workers' deaths than all the many police murders in the last decade. The cuts serve the profit interests of NYC's major banks. The cops' legalized terrorism gives the rulers firepower to use against working-class rebellions that eventually explode against racist oppression.

The only way to smash the Klan in blue is to smash the racist system —capitalism — that uses them to terrorize urban working-class communities. Communism — the system of workers' power, a society run for need, not profit — will sweep away these new knight riders and their politician masters, crushing them like the cockroaches they are. But for this, we must organize!

Now, more than ever, is the time to direct our anger where it belongs: not into more dead-end reform campaigns designed solely to keep angry workers and youth under control, but into the streets and into our shops, unions, communist organizations, churches, schools and campuses.
